SERVING YOUR CROP INSURANCE NEEDS

Buying a crop insurance policy is only one risk management option.

Producers should always carefully consider how a policy will work in conjunction with their other risk management strategies to insure the best possible outcome each crop year.

Your Farm Bureau crop insurance agent can assist you in developing a good management plan for your farming operation.

To locate a Farm Bureau agent in your area visit us online at www.afbisinc.com

The information provided in this brochure varies by crop and county. Before you make decisions concerning crop insurance, contact a Farm Bureau agent.

MPCI products are reinsured through the Federal Crop Insurance Corporation (FCIC). These policies are available to all producers regardless of race, color, national origin, sex, age, or disability.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) prohibits discrimination in all its programs and activities on the basis of race, color, national origin, age, disability, and where applicable, sex, marital status, familial status, parental status, religion, sexual orientation, genetic information, political beliefs, reprisal, or because all or a part of an individual's income is derived from any public assistance program. (Not all prohibited bases apply to all programs.) Persons with disabilities who require alternative means for communication of program information (Braille, large print, audiotape, etc.) should contact USDA's TARGET Center at (202) 720-2600 (voice and TDD).

To file a complaint of discrimination write to: USDA, Director, Office of Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20250-9410 or call (800) 795-3272 (voice) or (202) 720-6382 (TDD). USDA is an equal opportunity provider and employer.
